About Peter

Peter Sousa is an Austin-based professional psychic advisor, intuitive guide, spiritual teacher, and minister whose work centers on relationship clarity, career direction, repeating life patterns, and major transitions. He began offering readings as a teenager and has spent nearly three decades working with clients virtually across the United States and internationally.

His approach is direct, grounded, and ethical. Rather than presenting predictions as fixed fate, Peter focuses on likely patterns, emotional dynamics, blind spots, and practical choices. His public work emphasizes clarity, free will, discretion, and avoiding fear-based dependency.

Through Starlightwork, Peter offers live chat, voice, and video readings, along with private written readings and selected spiritual-support services. His work is designed for clients who want intuitive insight presented in a calm, useful, and professionally structured way.

“Psychic guidance for people who want honesty, clarity, and something they can actually use.”
